BỘ GIÁO DỤC VÀ ĐÀO TẠO ĐỀ THI CHÍNH THỨC (Đề thi có 04 trang)

Kỳ THI TỚT NGHIỆP TRUNG HỌC PHỎ THÔNG NĂM 2023 Bài thi: NGOẠI NGỮ; Môn thi: TIẾNG ANH

Thời gian làm bài: 60 phút, không kế thời gian phát đề

	om soult will	P.		Mã đề thi 422
Họ, tên thí sinh: Số báo danh:	Nguyên dê	Bad Ngor		Ivia de thi 422
Số báo danh:		J94853		a that hast completes each of Mark the letter A, B,	C, or D on you	ur answer sheet	to indicate the sentence	e that best completes each of the following exchange Question 1: Lan and C	iano are discus	sing lifelong lea	rning.
- Lan: "I think students	should develor	n lifelono learnin	o."
- Lan: I think students	alne them undat	e their knowledg	e and skills by themselve	es."
A. I quite disagree w		e their knowledg	B. That's not a good is	dea
C. I don't think it's a	1611 7 0 00		D) I quite agree with y
Question 2: David is i			zs vom s
- David: "?"
- The waitress: "Here	you are."		HOUSEND BURNOUNT 301
A. Can I wait for my	friend here		B. Can I have the men
C. Can I speak Kore	an here		D. Can I pay in cash h	ere Mark the letter A, B,	C, or D on your	r answer sheet to	indicate the word that t	differs from the other three in the position of stress i				D. company
Question 3: A. man	ager	B. charity B. remain		D. agree Question 4: A. avoi	C or D on your	D. ICHIAHI		e underlined part differs from the other three in pro	nunciation in e	ach of the follow	ing questions.	ad - con thus moisiler le
Ouestion 5: A. cour	nt	B. ground	C. south	D group
Question 5: A. cour Question 6: A. cher	mist	B. chairman	C. children	D. chicken
Mark the letter A, B,	C, or D on your	r answer sheet to	indicate the correct an	swer to each of the following questions.			Administration of the second	to be seen of his nonababa wants a B. learn		anguage while she is stu C. learned	D. to learning
A. to learn			long time to her	financial difficulty.
A. go out	B. get up		C. go off	(D.)get over Question 9: Before ye	ou decide to bu	y that house, it	is important that you sl	hould inspect it carefully. It's unwise to buy a pig			Raine Writing a letter.	a mode in man was
A. in a poke Question 10: They are	B. in a p	ack	C. in a wheel	D. in a nudge
A aren't they				D. do they
Question 11: We will	deliver the good	is to our custome	rs halen of H	Desilon 271 c. A. vacani
A, as soon as we we	re coming back	home	B. as soon as we came	back home
C. as soon as we con	ne back home	ody D.		ome back home
Question 12: It's diffi	cult us t	o go out because	of the bad weather.	D towards
A. to	B. for	ging contest last	C. on month, but I was unable	D. towards
A was encouraged	B. encou	raged	C. was encouraging t started to rain.	D. encourages
Question 14: Many po	eople in	the park when it	started to rain.	meval sest assignated
A) were walking	B. are w	alking	C. have walked	D. walk
Question 15: The Bro	wns apologised	to their neighbou	irs for much nois	se at the party last night.
A. doing	B. mixin	g	(C) making	D. taking Question 16: It is unu	sual for the gen	eral director to _	power to his midd	le managers to make financial decisions for the comp	any.		~
A. delegate	B. navig	ate	C. terminate	D. authorise nitor of our clas	ss is talking abou	it having a new	published in the next issue of the school bulletin.	(Partial)		C. podcast veleas	e Daditor chi
A. movie	B. article
	a big fine for sp	peeding, the driv	er leit very sorry thinkin	ng if only he had followed the traffic rules.  A. Giving	B. Given	1	C. To give	D. Having given
A. Olving	33072			Trang 1/4 - Mã đề thi 422

Question 20: Giang is 1.51 meters tall, and Hien is 1.60 meters tall. Giang is	Question 19: Vietnam has l	become an attractive touris	st destination in C) Ø (no article)	Asia. D . the Question 21: Although my confidently with foreigners.  A. communicative  B. communication  C. communicatively  D. communicate  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word CLOSEST in meaning to the underlined word in each of the following questions.  Question 22: Having worked on his short story for half a year, the writer was finally able to portray the full beauty of his homeland.  A. enter  B. collect  C describe  D. gather  Question 23: My younger sister dreams of studying overseas, so she intends to learn English intensively for a scholarship.  A. quits  B. moves  C plans  D. leaves  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt.  A. unfair and kind  B. fair and unkind  C. fair and cruel  D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful  B. delightful  C. horrible  D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin — the language of religion, and French — the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26)	Question 20: Giang is 1.51	meters tall, and Hien is 1.6	60 meters tall. Giang is _	Hien. D. older than
A. communicative A. communicative B. communication C. communicatively D. communicate Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word CLOSEST in meaning to the underlined word in each of the following questions.  Question 22: Having worked on his short story for half a year, the writer was finally able to portray the full beauty of his homeland. A. enter B. collect C. describe D. gather  Question 23: My younger sister dreams of studying overseas, so she intends to learn English intensively for a scholarship. A. quits B. moves C. plans D. leaves  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt. A. unfair and kind B. fair and unkind C. fair and cruel D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance. A. wonderful B. delightful C. horrible D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30) have been increasingly popular are repla	A. younger than	little daughter has been	learning English for th
Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word CLOSEST in meaning to the underlined word in each of the following questions.  Question 22: Having worked on his short story for half a year, the writer was finally able to portray the full beauty of his homeland.  A. enter  B. collect  C describe  D. gather  Question 23: My younger sister dreams of studying overseas, so she intends to learn English intensively for a scholarship.  A. quits  B. moves  C plans  D. leaves  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt.  A. unfair and kind  B. fair and unkind  C. fair and cruel  D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful  B. delightful  C. horrible  D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historian have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter	confidently with foreigners.
Describe D. gather  Question 23: My younger sister dreams of studying overseas, so she intends to learn English intensively for a scholarship.  A quits B. moves D. leaves  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt.  A. unfair and kind B. fair and unkind C. fair and cruel D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful B. delightful C. horrible D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin — the language of religion, and French — the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  (Adapted from High Note)  Question 26: A. another B. many C. each D. every  Question 27: A. vacant B. convey C. expand D. lengthen  Question 29: A.	Mark the letter A, B, C, or underlined word in each of	D on your answer shee the following questions.	t to indicate the word	CLOSEST in meaning to the Question 23: My younger sister dreams of studying overseas, so she intends to learn English intensively for a scholarship.  A. quits  B. moves  C. plans  D. leaves  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt.  A. unfair and kind  B. fair and unkind  C. fair and cruel  D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful  B. delightful  C. horrible  D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  (Adapted from High Note)  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. convey  C. each  D. every  D. every  D. engthen  D. engthen  D. engthen		d on his short story for ha	If a year, the writer was	finally able to portray the full
A quits  B. moves  C. plans  D. leaves  Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt.  A. unfair and kind  B. fair and unkind  C. fair and cruel  D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful  B. delightful  C. horrible  D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. convey  C. each  D. every  Question 29: A. where  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where		B. collect	C/describe	D. gather
Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the word(s) OPPOSITE in meaning to the underlined word(s) in each of the following questions.  Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt. A. unfair and kind B. fair and unkind C. fair and cruel D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful B. delightful C. horrible D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another B. many C. each D. every  Question 27: A. vacant B. occupied C. available D. constant  Question 28: A. transform B. convey C. expand D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where	Question 23: My younger si a scholarship.	ster dreams of studying o	verseas, so she intends t	o learn English intensively for
Question 24: I think you owe Henry an apology. What you said to him yesterday was really below the belt.  A. unfair and kind  B. fair and unkind  C. fair and cruel  D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful  B. delightful  C. horrible  D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26)  people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27)  This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28)  messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29)  have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30)  people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  (Adapted from High Note)  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when
A. unfair and kind  B. fair and unkind  C. fair and cruel  D fair and kind  Question 25: The singer was given a lot of flowers for her incredible performance.  A. wonderful  B. delightful  C. horrible  D. exciting  Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 28: A transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when	Mark the letter A, B, C, or I underlined word(s) in each	D on your answer sheet to of the following question	o indicate the word(s) C s.	OPPOSITE in meaning to the
Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 26 to 30.  People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 28: A. transform  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 29: A. where  D. lengthen  D. when People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 27: A. vacant  B. occupied  C. available  D. constant  Question 29: A. where  D. when
People have been recording information in the form of writing since ancient times. Latin – the language of religion, and French – the language of the rich and powerful, were the preferred languages in the Middle Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  (Adapted from High Note)  Question 26: A. another  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 27: A. vacant  B. occupied  C. available  D. constant  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when				r sheet to indicate the correct
Ages in Europe. Subjects were usually connected to religion, trade and government although historians have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 27: A. vacant  B. occupied  C. available  D. constant  Question 28: A transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A, where  B. which  C. who  D. when				ent times. Latin - the language have also come across love letters which (26) people wrote to stay in touch. After the invention of the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another the printing press, books and documents became readily (27) This, together with improvements in education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. convey  C. each  C. available  D. constant  Question 28: A. transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when education and the spread of postal services, permitted families and friends to (28) messages to each other by letters. Maintaining contact was much easier than it had ever been.  In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29) have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. many  C. each  D. every  Question 28: A. transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when
In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29)have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  B. many  C. each  C. each  D. every  Question 27: A. vacant  B. occupied  C. available  D. constant  Question 28: A. transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when
In recent years, though, everything has changed. Mobile phones, emails and text messages (29)have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.    Question 26: A. another				messages to each have been increasingly popular are replacing letters. Why bother writing a letter when you can make a small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  Question 26: A. another  B. many  C. each  C. available  D. constant  Question 28: A. transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when				nd taxt massages (20)
small talk on the phone for very little cost? (30), most people would agree that there is something very special about receiving a handwritten letter.  (Adapted from High Note)  Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  B. occupied  C. each  C. available  D. constant  Question 28: A. transform  B. convey  C. expand  D. lengthen  Question 29: A. where  D. when Question 26: A. another  Question 27: A. vacant  Question 28: A. transform  Question 29: A. where  B. many  C. each  C. available  D. constant  D. lengthen  D. lengthen  D. when
Question 26: A. another  B. many C. each D. every Question 27: A. vacant B. occupied C. available D. constant Question 28: A. transform B. convey C. expand D. lengthen D. when		THE TAKEN AND ADDRESS OF THE PROPERTY OF THE P
Question 27: A. vacantB. occupiedC. availableD. constantQuestion 28: A. transformB. conveyC. expandD. lengthenQuestion 29: A. whereB. whichC. whoD. when				(Adapted from High Note)
Question 28: (A) transformB. conveyC. expandD. lengthenQuestion 29: A. whereB. whichC. whoD. when	Question 26: A. another	B. many	Ceach	D. every
Question 29: A. where B. which C. who D. when	Question 27: A. vacant	B. occupied	C. available	D. constant
Question 29: A. where B. which C. who D. when	Question 28: A. transform	B. convey	C. expand	D. lengthen
Question 30: A. Because B. Moreover C. Although D. However	Question 29: A. where	B. which	C. who	D. when
	Question 30: A. Because	B. Moreover	C. Although	D. However
Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions from 31 to 35.			C, or D on your answer	r sheet to indicate the correct
The Japanese love inventing and they are very good at it. But there is one inventor who has invented	The Japanese love inve	nting and they are very go	ood at it. But there is or	ne inventor who has invented more things than anyone else in Japan. Dr. Nakamats. He has designed over 4,000 new inventions over the last fifty years. He is most well-known for his unusual inventions.	last fifty years. He is most w	ell-known for his unusual	inventions.
He designed many strange things such as glasses which look like eyes so you can't notice them, shoes which have steel springs so that you can jump in them, and a pillow which stops you from falling asleep	which have steel springs so	ge things such as glasses that you can jump in the	which look like eyes so m, and a pillow which	you can't notice them, shoes stops you from falling asleep
when you are driving.  How does he come up with these ideas? He finds listening to Beethoven helpful. But the thing that		with these ideas? He fine	ds listening to Beethove	en helpful. But the thing that water because they disappear quickly.

Dr. Nakamats believes that eating the right food is important for creativity, and he has invented some snacks that he says are good for your brain. He has also invented an armchair which helps to enhance your makes him most creative is holding his breath underwater. He dives into his swimming pool every day and stays underwater as long as he can. He believes that less oxygen in the brain is good for new ideas. He also dives with a pencil and a notebook which he invented. He needs to write down his ideas immediately in the brainpower. He sits in the chair every day to give him more good ideas. Dr. Nakamats is now in his eighties, but he plans to live until he is 144 years old, so he still has plenty of time to develop even more new ideas.

100

(Adapted from Get Ahead)

		(Adapted from Get Ahead)
Question 31: The passage is mainly about
A. inventions by famous Japanese inventors
B. famous Japanese scientists and their more inventions. C. Japanese famous inventions by a scientist	luons
D. a famous Japanese scientist and his strange inve	entions Ouestion 32: The word it in paragraph 1 refers to
A. inventing B. Japan	C. invention	D. notebook
Question 33: According to paragraph 2, Dr. Nakama	ts invented all of the fe	ollowing EXCEPT
A. shoes B. a book	C. glasses	D. a pillow
Question 34: Dr. Nakamats dives with a pencil and a	notebook because
A. he can drive more carefully	B. he wants to writ	e down his ideas immediately
C. he wants to get oxygen quickly	D. he can dive mor	e quickly
Question 35: The word enhance in paragraph 4 is c
A. decrease B) improve	C. divide	D. reduce
Read the following passage and mark the letter A, E	3, C, or D on your ans	swer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions from 36 to 42.
Action movies are exciting and a lot of fun to	watch, but they also	involve scenes of great risk and danger. In the language of filmmaking, dangerous act	ions are called stunts.	who performs these stunts? This work is too dangerous for regular actors. Movie com the actors in scenes that are unsafe.	ipanies usually life sp	ecial stufft people to stand in for Movie producers don't like to let actors do their	own stunt work If the	e actors injure themselves, it can delay the production schedule. Using stunt people	also saves time. Me	ost stunt people have years of experience, which enables them to perform their stur	nts with a minimum o	f risk. It would take too long to train the actors to perform dangerous scenes safely.
Some people who love the thrill of dangerous sp	orts such as skydiving	or rock climbing think it would be easy to work as a stunt person. But it isn't enough	to be a risk-taker. Stu	nt performers also have to know what to do if anything goes wrong.	Chifoet 19	of the house
In addition to risk-taking and meticulous attention	on to detail and planni	ng, stunt work requires being in top physical condition. Although there are a few training	ng programmes for stu	nt performers, most provide only an overview of the profession. Normally, the people w	host way to prepare for	a career in stant work is to train dangerous sports, rescue work, or the military. So the lin an area that involves strong physical conditioning ar	nd has an element of n	rysical danger.
Modern filmmaking techniques have changed the	way some dangerous	scenes are filmed. For example, computer-generated images make it possible to show	v stunts that would be	too dangerous or expensive for real stunt people to perform. Computer-generated ima	ges are often used tod	ay to create big light scenes, car crashes and evolosions. However they are not always	ivs the best choice. M	lany audiences want to see real people perform actual stunts. Also, the rising popular	rity of made-for-1 V m	novies around the world ensures that there is still plenty for stunt people in the film indu	istry.
		(Adapted from Strategic Reading)
Question 36: Which of the following statements best	expresses the main ide	a of the passage?
A. Action movies sometimes comprise non-dangerou	is work undertaken by	the supporting cast.
B. Movie companies use technology for stunts instea	d of stunt performers.
Stunt work is dangerous and needs to be performe	d by skilled and strong	g people.
B. Stunt people have to be physically fit to perform d
Question 37: In the language of filmmaking, stunts are	G recorder cotors	D. dangerous actions
A. exciting scenes B. action movies	C. regular actors	D. dangerous actions
Question 38: The word them in paragraph 2 refers to	O tour transla	D. movie producers
A. movie actors B. movie scenes	C. stunt people	D. morte productio
Question 39: The word thrill in paragraph 3 is closest	in meaning to	D. excitement
A. arrangement B. consequence	C. convenience	2
Question 40: The word meticulous in paragraph 4 is c	losest in meaning to _	-100
		D. careful
A harmful B. helpful	C. useful	D, careful  Trang 3/4 - Mã đề thi 422

<ul> <li>Question 41: Which of the following is NOT TRUE according to the passage?</li> <li>A. Stunt performers normally have certain experience in related fields.</li> <li>B. Stunt people are hired mostly to undertake dangerous scenes.</li> </ul>
C. Stunts need to be performed with great care.
D. Movie stunts are often performed by the main actors.
Question 42: Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?  A. Film directors can take advantage of TV scenes in their movies.
B Audiences prefer computer-generated images to stunts performed by real people.
C. Modern technology may assist in reducing the cost of film production.
D. Stunts play an indispensable role in the success of made-for-TV movies.
Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the underlined part that needs correction Question 43: In their pioneering research, they found that the learning needs of the two groups of learners were quite distinctive from each other, and the control group whose learning needs were stronger performed better than the comparative group.
Question 44: To show others where they are from, students should wear her uniforms when going D to and from school.
HTO.
Question 45: Our grandfather usually told us interesting stories whenever we come to visit him.  B  C  D
Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the sentence that is closest in meaning to each of the following questions.
A. Students needn't communicate either by look or by voice in the exam room.  B. Students wouldn't communicate either by look or by voice in the exam room.  C. Students won't communicate either by look or by voice in the exam room.  D. Students mustn't communicate either by look or by voice in the exam room.
Question 47: "I helped the little boy cross the road," said the man. and given I rep
A The man said he would help the little boy cross the road.
B. The man said he helped the little boy cross the road.
C. The man said I helped the little boy cross the road.  D. The man said he had helped the little boy cross the road.
Question 48: Ted started learning Japanese five years ago.  A. Ted started learning Japanese when he was five years old.
B. Ted has learned Japanese since he was five years old.
C. Ted has learned Japanese for five years.
D. Ted has started learning Japanese since five years.
Mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the sentence that best combines each pair of sentences in the following questions.
Question 49: The AI apps were expensive. He couldn't afford to buy them.
A. If the AI apps had been cheaper, he couldn't have afforded to buy them.  B. If the AI apps had been cheaper, he can't have afforded to buy them.
C. If the Al apps had been more expensive, he could have afforded to buy them.
B. If the AI apps had been less expensive, he could have afforded to buy them.  Question 50: The Vietnamese female athlete had just finished the race. All the spectators at the stadium gave her a big round of applause.  A. Had it not been for the big round of applause all the spectators at the stadium gave her, the Vietnamese female athlete couldn't have finished the race.
B. Barely had the Vietnamese female athlete finished the race when all the spectators at the stadium gave her a big round of applause.
C. No matter when the Vietnamese female athlete finished the race did all the spectators at the stadium give her a big round of applause.
D Not until all the spectators at the stadium gave her a big round of applause did the Vietnamese female athlete finish the race.
aunieue iimish the race.
Trang 4/4 - Mã đề thi 422