Television and Kids

Television is very adj and even has some benefits for kids. It helps very young children learn the letters of the alphabet, and helps other kids learn about science, cultures, and world events. However, researchers show that too much TV is bad for children. For one thing, there is a link between watching more than four hours of TV a day (28) being overweight. For another thing, many TV shows are violent and upsetting. Watching these shows may cause kids to be more (29) adj. And of course, more time in front of the TV means less time to study. Too much TV may also be the cause of lower grades. Experts do not agree on the solution to these problems. Some say that kids should watch only educational programs; Others say kids should watch no TV at all. And others suggest (30) them to watch TV as occasional entertainment, not as an everyday hobby.

One of the most celebrated traditional holidays in Vietnam is Vietnamese Teacher's Day, which falls on the twentieth of November every year.

People celebrate this special day to honor all Vietnamese teachers for their devotion to the education. On this merry and grateful occasion, students often visit their teachers, wishing them good health, happiness and career success and respectfully presenting them gifts like flowers to show their gratitude to their teachers. Gift shops are filled with beautiful 20-11 gifts and many students get excited to choose ones for their teachers. And those who are out of town and cannot visit their teachers often send their favorite teachers greeting cards on which words of gratitude and wishes of the season are expressed. Many alumni who are now successful businessmen and government officers often offer very big bunches of flowers to their old schools as an expression of their gratitude towards their teachers who have taught them to become useful citizens.

Both teachers and students are very happy on this interesting holiday because they have a chance to recall their funny and good memories. Vietnamese Teacher's Day is really one of our most important holidays.
